Dear Ralph :

Congratulation for your successful efforts.

WGBH'-side is also going very very good.

Russel Connor (assistant director of the Rose Art Museum, who organized epoch-making "Vision & Television" Shoow), has become a staff member of the New York Art Council. His job is to suggest various ideas on the community involvements of the video (especially using cable TV facility). He is quite interested with your campaign there. Since I have four friends working at Council, you have a fair chance to get something out of there. Please, think about ^{the possibilities} to involve the community (rich or poor) in which your experimental TV center becomes a nucleus.

I will be back from N Y on July First.

Come to Boston sometime before July 15. and see my wonder machine. I am disassembling my

Meet with Russel Connor and another V I P in New York at the second half of JULY.

Russel is reachable at Council after July 1
